

Hendersonville Elementary Parent Engagement Policy

Hendersonville Elementary recognizes the value of the home-school partnership. We encourage parents to be involved throughout the school year in a variety of ways.

Some examples of parent engagement may include:

- Meet the Teacher Day
- Open House/Parent Orientation
- PTO Committees
- Cubcat Conversations
- Special Occasions (for example: Cubcat Crawl, Transition Meetings, Kindergarten Readiness Rally, Kindergarten Ice Cream Social, New Parent Breakfast, Family Picnic/Dinner, GRAND Event, Class Parties)
- English and Spanish newsletters and notices (upon request)
- School Website
- Parent-Teacher Conferences
- Student Agendas, Home-School Notebooks, Home-School (Red) Folders
- Report Cards
- Multi-Tier System of Supports (MTSS)
- Personal Education Plans (IEPs)
- Midterm Reports
- Parent Surveys and Questionnaires
- Superintendent-Parent Advisory Committee
- School Advisory Committee
- Field Trips (chaperone)
- School Improvement Team
- STEM Nights
- Volunteer Opportunities
- Parent Communication Apps

Hendersonville Elementary provides an open invitation for parents to visit our school and to become involved. We value our school family. We encourage parents to communicate regularly with our faculty and staff. It takes meaningful effort from all of us to ensure our children's success.
