School-Parent Compact 2025-2026

As a required component of our Title I Parent Engagement Policy, the collaboratively developed school-parent compact outlines the shared responsibilities of parents, school staff, and students in improving student academic achievement.

Principal's Pledge:

- Provide a safe and structured environment that supports learning.
- Communicate regularly with the school community.
- Strengthen the partnership between home and school.
- Cultivate a positive school culture.
- Utilize resources to meet the needs of students, families, and teachers.

Teacher's Pledge:

- Create and maintain a safe, structured, and positive learning environment.
- Implement lessons aligned with state standards.
- Deliver engaging and motivating learning experiences for students.
- Address individual student's needs to the best of my ability.
- Maintain open communication with parents and students to support each child's success.

All Staff:

- Communicate regularly with parents.
- Make decisions in the best interest of students
- Follow Board Policies and the North Carolina Educator Code of Ethics

Parent's Pledge:

- Stay actively engaged with my child's daily school experiences and learning.
- Maintain open communication with my child's teacher and attend and engage in conferences and school activities.
- Regularly check school communication tools for updates and important information.
 - (Ex. take-home folders, Bloomz, the Cougars' Roar Newsletter, and auto calls.)
- Ensure my child is prepared by attending school regularly, arriving on time, and avoiding early dismissal.
- Support my child's success by reinforcing homework policies and reading together regularly.

Student's (PAWS) Pledge:

I will PAWS to
Ppractice responsibility,
Always be kind,
work together With respect to others and Safely sharpen my saw to become the leader I want to be at my school.
