STUDENT RESTRAINT/SECLUSION/ISOLATION

I. Reasonable Force

The Henderson County Board of Public Education believes that ensuring safety for students and staff is essential. Securing order in the school environment sometimes requires that students be subject to greater controls than those appropriate for adults. Except as restricted or prohibited by rules adopted by the Board of Public Education, principals, teachers, substitute teachers, voluntary teachers, teacher assistants, student teachers, bus drivers or other employees, contractors or volunteers may use reasonable force in the exercising of lawful authority to restrain or correct students and maintain order. (G.S. § 115C-390)

Notwithstanding any Board of Public Education policy, school personnel may use reasonable force to control behavior or to remove a person from the scene in those situations when necessary:

- to quell a disturbance threatening injury to others;
- to obtain possession of weapons or other dangerous objects on their person, or within the control, of a student;
- for self-defense;
- for the protection of persons or property; or
- to maintain order on school property, in the classroom, or at a school related activity on or off school property. (G.S. § 115C-391a)

The Board prohibits corporal punishment believing that other consequences are more appropriate and effective for teaching self-control. No principal, teacher, substitute teacher, voluntary teacher, teacher assistant, student teacher, bus driver, or other employee, contractor or volunteer may use corporal punishment to discipline any student. Reasonable force that is necessary to protect oneself or others is not considered corporal punishment.

Notwithstanding any other law, no officer or employee of the Board of Public Education shall be held civilly liable for using reasonable force in conformity with State law.

II. Physical/Mechanical Restraint

Physical restraint is defined as the use of physical force to restrict the free movement of all or a portion of a student's body. Physical restraint shall be allowed by Henderson County Public School personnel as a reasonable use of force under the following circumstances in accordance with North Carolina General Statute § 115C-391.1:

- a. as reasonably needed to obtain possession of a weapon or other dangerous objects on a person or within the control of a person;
- b. as reasonably needed to maintain order or prevent or break up a fight;
- c. as reasonably needed for self defense;
- d. as reasonably needed to ensure the safety of any student, school employee, volunteer, or other person present;
- e. to teach a skill, to calm or comfort a student, or to prevent self-injurious behavior;
- f. as reasonably needed to escort a student safely from one area to another; (Students should only be physically escorted when it is deemed safe or if the current setting conditions pose hazards for the student or staff. Escorts should only be conducted in accordance with training procedures adopted by the system.)
- g. if used as provided for in a student's IEP or Section 504 plan or Behavior Intervention Plan as a brief intervention strategy to assist the student in regaining self-control; or
- h. as reasonably needed to prevent imminent destruction to school or another's person's property. [G.S. § 115C-391.1(c)(1)]

Physical restraint shall not be considered a reasonable use of force if used solely as a disciplinary consequence.

Mechanical restraint is defined as the use of any device or material attached or adjacent to a student's body that restricts freedom of movement or normal access to any portion of the student's body and that the student cannot easily remove. Mechanical restraint shall be allowed only in the following circumstances:

- a. when properly used as an assistive technology device included in the student's IEP or as otherwise prescribed for the student by a medical or related services provider;
- b. when using seat belts or other safety restraints to secure student during transportation;
- c. as reasonably needed to obtain possession of a weapon or other dangerous objects on a person or within the control of a person;
- d. as reasonably needed for self-defense; or
- e. as reasonably needed to ensure the safety of any student, school employee, volunteer, or other person. [G.S. § 115C-391.1(d)(1)]

If used for the purpose of preventing self-injurious behavior, the use of mechanical restraints should be included in the IEP as part of a Behavior Intervention Plan.
